Macy's

R. H. Macy and Co.

Both Sides of 14th St. (Running from 13th to 15th St.), Sixth Ave.

Our Prices Are Always Very Much Lower Than Elsewhere, and at No Time Is the Difference So Pronounced as During the Holidays.

NOTICE: Beginning to-day, the store will remain open during the evenings.

Again we suggest that you shop in the forenoon—the earlier you come the lighter you'll find the crowd.

Sore Season for Trimmed Millinery—prices have fallen. Every Trimmed Hat in the lot at exactly half. A charming premium Every Trimmed Hat in the stock at exactly half. A charming premium for those who waited. The sale will not cease until the last Hat has vanished.

Don't miss the Picture Gallery. High Art, Low Prices. The Oil Paintings we imported chime in delightfully with the universal gift-giving impulse. A pretty picture will please, and the cost need not tax your resources severely—$13.48 to $106.99.

Holiday time among the Toys. You know what that means at Macy's. No? Then come and find out. If you are familiar with the market you'll be amazed—not so much at the Toys as the way we sell them. It has been repeatedly proven that our prices range from 25 to 50 per cent less than elsewhere.

Rugs—Have they occurred to you? Fashion says—"Litter the floor with beautiful Rugs—scatter them prodigally." No woman ever had too many. If you want the Oriental kind, come here; if you prefer the Occidental products, come here also. We save you much money on either.

"Best place in New York to buy Furniture is at the Macy Annex." No, the writer did not overhear a woman make that remark. And had he, the fragment wouldn't have been reported in our advertising columns. However, we know that fact is in the minds and mouths of thousands. We are certain of it.

Our present Diamond selling affords the biggest chunks of economy that ever came your way. The luckiest of lucky chances gave us possession of a large variety of Pendants, Brooches, Rings, Scarf Pins and Link Cuff Buttons. Then the war in Africa started, cutting off the richest source of supply. That was the signal for prices to jump. Our prices didn't jump. You'll now find them at least a third less than other dealers ask.

Handkerchiefs in billow heaps—most of them come from the Macy factory in Belfast, where flax is the leading staple. We cut out the middleman's profit and can guarantee quality with accuracy. It's a modest statement of the case to say that we save you a third.

Books, Books, Books—our Book Department weeps the whole circle of literature. No proper Book is missing from our shelves and counters. Buyers who are frugal can't afford to ignore the claims of our liberal policy upon their attention.

The "Straus" Piano can be bought for $123.68. Immense value is crowded into it. You may spend double that amount right handily and secure an instrument that's inferior to ours. We warrant the "Straus" Piano five years and keep it in tune one year.

Cut Glass—The Straus Cut Glass is deservedly celebrated. One of its trophies is the World's Fair Medal—first prize for grace and richness. Your ever increasing patronage is the testimonial we value most. It was won by right prices. Right prices hold and strengthen it.

Rudolstadt Art Pottery straight from the factory to the retail buyer. That's another masterly Macy stroke of enterprise. We avoid the middleman's profit—so do you when you choose at our counters.

We keep our China business before you on the theory that your interest in good things never palls. The spirit and the letter of the Macy principles control. The choicest China in Christendom, and not infrequently our prices are half what others charge.

"Good Groceries"—"Good groceries" you may say when you know our prices. But you need never hesitate nor falter in your selections because we charge so little. No matter how low we offer Groceries the qualities are invariably dependable, standard and worthy. Bear that in mind always.

Every word of our Umbrella advertising counts. No adjectives applied to mere bulk—not a single reference to anything except the direct, interest-creating hints that rivet the thoughts of money savers. Have you seen the Umbrellas at $2.98, $4.98 and $6.98?

The husband who has received an inkling from his wife that she intends giving him a box of Cigars need feel no alarm—if the wife secures the Cigars during the sale now going on in our annex. The finest imported and domestic kinds are being sold at under prices.

Open Evenings Until Christmas.

In the midst of Holiday buying do not forget that

Saturday is Children's Day, when there are always special values in CLOTHING FOR BOYS AND GIRLS.

"Special Values" is not an empty phrase here—it means that prices we quote are for more desirable goods than same amount buys elsewhere.

Boys' Clothing.

In presenting the following for consideration we would repeat what we have before stated:

OUR PRICES, WHILE LOW, never touch the point where merit ceases

There being a vast difference in fabrics, the inexperienced are often misled by cloths that look well while new, but after short wear prove their inferiority. Those who know most about qualities are our most appreciative customers, for they realize the values we give.

Those who are not experts can rely upon what they buy here—no misrepresentations allowed—only reliable fabrics offered.

BOYS' DOUBLE BREAST SUITS. Strictly All Wool Fabrics—7 to 10 years. Navy Blue and Neat Mixtures. 2.98. Stylish Mixtures and Navy Wide Wale 3.98. Extra fine Worsteds and Cassimeres 4.98-5.98.
